

Painting holidays in the UK with Dee Cowell

Staying in spectacular surroundings with good facilities these holidays include full board and instruction. We will send you a list of essential equipment to bring three weeks before your holiday commences.

Freshwater Bay House often features on calendars of the Isle of Wight and again boasts its own studio together with sea views from most rooms, and an outdoor swimming pool.

Glen Coe brooding, mystical mountains and valleys, waiting to be painted.

All of these holidays run alongside our walking programmes, and occasionally with other Activity holidays. Groups, couples and single travelers are all welcome to come and stay with us on a full board basis in splendid surroundings whilst all will learn new skills, meet new friends and enjoy time to relax.

For further information on our full range of holidays and more details on our Houses please call, email or visit our website. All details provided below.
