Oil Painting Everyday Objects with BP Portrait Award artist James Stewart

11-13 May 2012

Oil Painting still life with James Stewart is an introduction to painting with oils from stretching your own canvas to a completed work. James takes inspiration from items found around the house, studio, bakery, supermarket or roadside. From cup cakes to cacti; light bulbs to toilet rolls he delights in painting the overlooked objects of everyday life which have their own integrity and beauty and make a refreshing change from more traditional subjects.
